Supplemental Notice to Individual Consumer Debtor

This notice is provided pursuant to 11 U.S.C. Section 527(a)(2), and is given in addition to the Notice to Individual Consumer Debtors required pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 342(b)(1).

(A) All information that you, the debtor or assisted person, are required to provide with your petition and thereafter in your case are required to be complete, accurate and truthful.

(B) All your assets and all your liabilities are required to be completely and accurately disclosed in the documents filed to commence your case.

(C) The value of each asset, which is secured by a lien on such asset, must be stated as the replacement value of such asset after reasonable inquiry to establish such value. The replacement value means the replacement value as of the date of the filing of the petition, without deduction for costs of sale or marketing. With respect to property acquired for personal, family or household purposes, replacement value means the price a retail merchant would charge for property of that kind, considering the age and condition of the property at the time value is determined.

(D) After reasonable inquiry you are required to state your current monthly income. Current monthly income means the average monthly income from all sources that the debtor receives (or in a joint case, the debtor and the debtor's spouse receive) without regard to whether such income is taxable income, derived during the six month period ending on the last calendar month immediately preceding the date of the commencement of the case if the debtor files the schedule of current income required by Section 521(a)(1)(B)(ii) of the United States Bankruptcy Code, or the date on which current income is determined by the court for purposes of the Bankruptcy Code if the debtor does not file the schedule of current income required by Section 521(a)(1)(B)(ii) of the United States Bankruptcy Code. Current monthly income includes any amount paid by any entity, other than the debtor (or in a joint case the debtor and the debtor's spouse), on a regular basis for the household expenses of the debtor or the debtor's dependents (and in a joint case the debtor's spouse if not otherwise a dependent), but excludes benefits received under the Social Security Act, payments to victims of war crimes or crimes against humanity on account of their status as victims of such crimes, and payments to victims of international terrorism or domestic terrorism on account of their status as victims of such terrorism.

(E) Information that you provide may be audited. Failure to provide such information may result in the dismissal of your case or other sanction, including criminal sanctions.
